Gehman Custom Remodeling (GCR) introduces Philip Barbay as Design/Build Consultant

Harleysville, PA - JULY 3, 2008 – Dennis D. Gehman, President of Gehman Custom Remodeling (GCR) is pleased to announce that Philip Barbay of Harleysville had joined the firm as a Design/Build Consultant. Barbay joins a well rounded team of professional designers and craftsmen working together to provide exceptional kitchens, baths and room additions to clients throughout southeastern Pennsylvania. A graduate architect, Barbay brings to GCR more than 20 years of experience designing and constructing award winning residential, office, retail and health care projects throughout the Delaware Valley.

Barbay holds a B.S. in Architecture from Temple University and has previously served as an executive with Realen and The Quaker Group. He is an active supporter of land, watershed and historic preservation both in Montgomery County Pennsylvania and Talbot County Maryland.

Gehman Custom Remodeling welcomes Barbay to their team with excitement for the energy and creativity he will bring to our staff, clients, and the local community. Barbay is eager to continue GCR's ground breaking endeavors in the adaptive reuse of vintage structures. He hopes to attract more corporate, government and institutional clients to the thriving residentially oriented firm while continuing to provide services to the residential side of the business as well.

Gehman Custom Remodeling has been offering full service Design Build Remodeling throughout southeastern Pennsylvania since 1990. Offices and showroom for GCR are located in a national award winning 1870s renovated barn on Main Street in Harleysville. They are a member of the National Kitchen & Bath Association (NKBA), National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI), and the Better Business Bureau, as well as the Indian Valley Chamber of Commerce and North Penn Chamber of Commerce.
