FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE !!!

Gehman Custom Remodeling Kicks off “Going Green” Seminar Series at Souderton Area Community Education

Harleysville, PA – October 9, 2008 – For those interested in looking to green their lives, a group of four Gehman Custom Remodeling (GCR) employees will be taking their knowledge and passion for green living and remodeling into the classrooms through the Souderton Area Community Education’s Fall 2008 program line-up. The classes will be taught at Indian Valley Middle School on Thursday evenings, 7 – 8:30 pm from October 23 to November 13. Registrations are being taken through Souderton Area Community Education at 215-721-1551.

The seminars will be led by the following:

- Jennifer Hallman, Marketing Director

Title: Going Green Your Way

Date: Thursday, October 23

Hallman will discuss practical steps to going green in our daily lives. She has over 12 years of public relations experience and is supporting GCR in marketing their green remodeling expertise as well as their green journey at the office. Hallman is a member of the Indian Valley Chamber of Commerce and also volunteers on the promotions committee for Souderton-Telford Main Streets.

- Dennis Gehman, President

Title: Welcome in Winter with an Energy-Efficient Home

Date: Thursday, October 30

Gehman will address a mix of low-cost fixes as well long-term eco-friendly systems that can help homeowners prepare better for the imminent rise in energy costs. Owner of Gehman Custom Remodeling for the past 18 years, he has over a decade’s worth of experience providing energy-efficient, sustainable products to area homes. He is Green-Advantage certified through the Delaware Valley Green Building Council. Gehman is a member of the Indian Valley Chamber of Commerce and North Penn Chamber of Commerce, and is a charter member of Bucks Mont National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI) and a member of National Kitchen and Bath Association (NKBA).

- Tammie Linville, Residential Designer

Title: Achieving Green Appeal

Date: Thursday, November 6

The opportunities are endless to incorporate greener designs in the kitchen. Linville will share the vast array of green home products available that can both improve the homes' overall efficiency and energy consumption as well as add aesthetic beauty to your surroundings. Linville, a NARI Certified Kitchen & Bath Designer, has spent 13 years in architecture and six years in mechanical engineering. She is a member of NARI, NKBA, and the Indian Valley Chamber of Commerce. Linville also served as judge for two years in the North Montco Career Center's Skills USA Architectural Drafting Competition.

- Merv Zook, Craftsman

Title: Beyond Recycling Basics

Date: Thursday, November 13

Zook will bring his interest and teaching experience in the earth sciences to explain how people can develop a recycling mindset and create recycling habits and systems that can be applied to day-to-day routines. A NARI Certified Lead Carpenter, Zook has been a craftsman with GCR over the last 12 years. He blends his love of carpentry and sustainability in the work he does. Previously, Zook was a science teacher at Indian Valley Middle School for 27 years. Retiring from teaching has allowed him to reinforce his eco-friendly values as an avid recycler, composter, and organic gardener.

Gehman Custom Remodeling has been offering full service Design Build Remodeling throughout southeastern Pennsylvania since 1990. Offices and showroom for GCR are located in a national award winning 1870s renovated barn on Main Street in Harleysville. They are a member of the National Kitchen & Bath Association (NKBA), National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI), and the Better Business Bureau, as well as the Indian Valley Chamber of Commerce and North Penn Chamber of Commerce.
