FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE !!!

Employees of Gehman Custom Remodeling (GCR)
Achieve Continuing Professional Education Programs

HARLEYSVILLE, PA – JUNE 24, 2008 – When it comes to succeeding in the home remodeling industry, the staff of Gehman Custom Remodeling (GCR) realizes that pursuing continuing education opportunities makes them become greater assets not only to customers but to the local community as well. President and CEO Dennis Gehman recognizes the following employees in their achievements:

- Remodeling Consultant Elijah Gehman and Craftsmen Ryan Badorf, Aaron Gehman and Jeremy Nice completed a 36-hour course from the North Montco Technical Career Center on Electrical Construction. The group gained knowledge in the areas of electric theory, residential wiring, National Electric Code, and electrical renovations.
- Craftsman Al McCarthy successfully completed a 72-hour course from North Montco Technical Career Center on Residential Air Conditioning, and has recently passed the Universal EPA certification for Refrigeration. Al is now qualified to successfully install, repair and troubleshoot residential air conditioning units. In this course, he learned the basics of circuitry and troubleshooting of the control system as industry requires.

Gehman Custom Remodeling has been offering full service Design Build Remodeling throughout southeastern Pennsylvania since 1990. Offices and showroom for GCR are located in a national award winning 1870s renovated barn on Main Street in Harleysville. They are a member of the National Kitchen & Bath Association (NKBA), National Association of the Remodeling Industry (NARI), and the Better Business Bureau, as well as the Indian Valley Chamber of Commerce and North Penn Chamber of Commerce.
